It's a temptation sometimes to a Grocer to buy imitation foods.

He could make so much more profit and get rich so much quicker.
So he reasons and too often falls.
It requires stamina to sell pure food of the best quality all the time and at bedrock prices.

ORIGIN OF THE RED CROSS

FORTY NATIONS ARE UNITED IN IT.

Was Organized in Switzerland in 1864
—The United States Joined It Eighteen Years Later.

There is in Indiana about a square mile of land with buildings on it, and forty nations are pledged by their governments in solemn treaty that no hostile foot shall tread upon it nor an angry shot be fired over it, for it is the property of the Red Cross Society of America, a branch of the International Red Cross Society.

To Switzerland and to a Swiss gentleman—Henry Dunant—belongs the honor of enlisting every nation of the world as official patrons of the work pioneered by Florence Nightingale.
He was traveling in Italy in June, 1859, and being near the terrific and anguinary battle of Solferino he took part in the care of the wounded. He was deeply impressed with the lack of hospital features and the thought fastened on him that nations might be bound together by solemn agreement to prevent unnecessary military suffering. He published a book about the battle and its horrors, which created a widespread sensation and it was soon translated into several languages. Encouraged by the public interest in the book he laid it before the Swiss Society of Public Utility, an organization corresponding to what we would call a society of social science. The idea was taken up warmly and a committee, with the general in chief of the Swiss Confederation at its head, was formed to interest other countries. In October, 1863, an international conference, attended by sixteen nations, including all the European powers except Russia, was held. This conference passed a resolution, with the authority of the Supreme Federal Council of Switzerland, to call an international convention.
That convention met at Geneva on August 8, 1864, and sixteen nations were again represented by men of great eminence in diplomacy, military and medical service, all being empowered by their governments to enter into a treaty.

One work of the convention was to devise the well known flag for hospitals and convoys and the arm badge for persons, viz: the red cross of four equal arms on a white ground.
Switzerland is forever identified with this, as it is the Swiss national ensign with the colors reversed.

It was not until Garfield was in the presidential chair that, with the help of Senator Windom and Secretary Blaine, the subject was submitted to Congress, seventeen years after its first presentation by our Minister at Bern. The little committee of 1877 was organized as the American Association of the Red Cross, and it is doing its good work today.

President Arthur continued with spirit the work which Garfield's sad death interrupted, and, with the help of Senators Edmunds, Morgan and Lapham, Congress agreed to the treaty of Geneva, which was signed by the President on the 1st day of March, 1882.

BERREY-KAMMERER WEDDING.
Cards are out announcing the wedding of O. H. Berrey, head of the Hawaiian Mercantile Agency, to Miss Jennie E. Kammerer, principal of the school at Kailua, Hawaii, to occur at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. P.
Harris, Auapuni street, on the evening of July 27th, at 8 o'clock.

REGARDED AS A DUTY.
"I lost my appetite and became weak. At last I was taken very sick.
My attention was called to Hood's Sarsaparilla and I took a bottle and it made me feel better. I have taken five bottles and am now well. I feel it my duty to tell you what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done." Mrs. A. Ever-sen, Wedderburn, Oregon.

HOOD'S PILLS are the favorite family cathartic. Easy to take, easy to operate.

ONLY THE CHOICEST.
Fresh Seattle beer always on tap at the Criterion saloon. The constant demand for this popular brand of beer is a certain proof of its quality. There is no brand of beer that ever had the run that Rainier has. The brewery at Seattle is very proud of their Honolulu trade, and are particular to send only the choicest brews here. Tele-
